White Wine (continued)

	glass	bottle
Shaw Estate Riesling 2018, Murrumbateman, NSW	9.0	42.0

This cool climate Riesling exhibits green apple, lychee and mineral notes with a lively palate of fresh limes. Delicate acidity is the key with lovely length and persistence.

Saddler's Creek Verdelho, Hunter Valley	8.5	32.0
---	-----	------

Bursting with tropical fruit aromas, the palate displays fresh fruit sweetness and a crisp, dry finish.

Inara Pinot Gris, Yarra Valley, VIC	8.5	36.0
-------------------------------------	-----	------

This award-winning Pinot Gris shows delicate white petal notes accompanied by aromas of red apple and musk. The palate is textural with medium intensity.

Red Wine

The Floozie, Sangiovese Rose, McLaren Vale, SA	9.0	42.5
--	-----	------

Like crunching your way into a perfectly ripe pink lady apple. There are notes of fairy floss and bubble-gum, but not enough to upset the poise and elegance. Wonderfully delicate fragrance.

Inara Rose, 2015, Yarra Valley, VIC	9.0	40.5
-------------------------------------	-----	------

The appearance is salmon. Aromas of autumn red peaches, red rose petal, bay leaf and orange pith with notes of grazing paddock on a misty winters morning. The palate is savoury, and the wine is dry. There are flavours of red apple skin, raspberry, blood orange and freshly picked cherries.

Ktima Voyatzis, Cabernet Sauvignon Merlot, Greece	8.5	36.0
---	-----	------

Dark red colour, complex aroma that combines different shades and varieties of the barrel and aging. The flavour impression is soft at first, structured and rich, then, fragrant, and long lasting in the end.

Billy the Greek, Shiraz, McLaren Vale, SA	7.5	27.5
---	-----	------

Full, soft palate with upfront fleshy boysenberry and black cherry fruit, which smoothly combine with dark chocolate, mocha and savoury, earthy notes. Chewy dry tannins generously extend the palate and a gentle touch of warming white pepper on the finish.

Leefield Station, Pinot Noir, Marlborough, NZ	9.0	48.5

Grown in the cool-climate vineyards of Marlborough's Waihopai Valley, the 2017 Leefield Station Pinot Noir showcases hints of red fruit characters laced with underlying oak elements of toast and smoke that finish beautifully with a vibrant juicy acidity.

St Johns Brook Cabernet Sauvignon, Margaret River	8.5	37.0
---	-----	------

Dark ruby in colour, has bright aromas of blackcurrant and rosehip on the nose, with a fresh, tart palate of cassis, dark forest fruits and complex dusty tannins.

Fox Gordon Eight Uncles Shiraz, Barossa Valley	8.5	42.0
--	-----	------

Loaded with blackberry, raspberry, and hints of pepper, finishing with a luscious mocha Espresso quality. There is ample tannin, but with a soft gentle presence.

Dessert Wine

Peter Lehmann Botrytis Semillon 375ml	10.0	42.0
---------------------------------------	------	------

A beautiful golden colour which will intensify with age. With a bouquet, Chock full of honey and lime marmalade characters, the palate is deliciously luscious and is counter balanced by the natural acidity, making this a dessert wine of the highest pedigree.
